

I am from Wisconsin and understand that banks want to challenge or weaken our current do not call list. Please leave it alone. My phone is my phone, not theirs. The reason we get on a do not call list is because we DO NOT want to be called. Please do not succumb to their pressure. The federal do not call should be as strong as Wisconsin's.